OAKVILLE

Mr. Taylor Coleman was taken to the hospital last week for treatment. Glad to say he came home Sunday afternoon and is feeling much better.

The Marshall-Caldwell reunion was held at the W.O.W. Building Sunday with a large crowd and plenty of good food. Everybody had a good time.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Charlie Page and his wife is still in the hospital very ill. Our sympathy is extended to this fine family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burcher, of Scottsville, visited Mr. and Mrs. Garland Burcher Monday.

Mrs. Overton Moore, of Appomattox, spent several days last week visiting relatives and friends in Oakville.

The W.S.C.S. of Mt. Comfort Church will meet Thursday evening of this week at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Lola Thomas and Grace Hackworth, of Lynchburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Moore Sunday afternoon.

Sorority Plans For New Year

Delta Zeta Chater of Beta Sigma Phi met for the annual planning meeting, Monday evening, Aug. 29 at the Lee Grant Motel. Mrs. Jim Baxter was hostess for the event. President Brenda Stanley conducted the meeting.

Summer activities were reviewed. They included a pool party held for Girl Scout Troop #336 at Travelers Inn Motel which was hostessed by Mrs. Ray Noble and sponsored by the chapter; a buffet dinner for chapter members at the home of Mrs. Millard Stimpson in Brookneal; and two other socials held at member's homes. Also mentioned was the marriage of Miss Jo Ann Warriner to Mr. Edsel Smith, an event of August 19th. Members of the sorority assisted with the nuptials.

Report of dispersal of moneys during 1971-72 revealed that $25 had been donated to the Fund for Virginia Flood Victims, $10 had gone to the Central Virginia Speech and Hearing Center, $20 to the Appomattox County Rescue Squad, and $60 to the Beta Sigma Phi International Endowment Fund. The Endowment Fund supports such causes as the American Cancer Society, the Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation and Girlstown U.S.A. Other service projects throughout the year included welcoming newcomers to Appomattox through the "Hi! Neighbor" project; assisting with the blood mobile canteen; sponsoring a Girl Scout troop; adopting a "little sister" and supporting the Special Wheels program.

A social calendar for the coming year was planned. Among other events it will include an International Dinner for members and their guests this fall, a spring theater party to Roanoke, and the annual Valentine Dance in February. It was decided not to serve a buffet at the dance this year due to the work involved for members. Ticket sales for the event will begin earlier than last year. The Velvetones have been contracted for the dance.

The Ways and Means committee reported that five auction sales are scheduled this fall. Delta Zeta is to sell food at these sales. Girls will also be selling the new Fondue and Buffet Cookbook published by Beta Sigma Phi International.

All other necessary plans for the coming year were made. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned. Mrs. Baxter served refreshments during the social hour which followed.

Mrs. Bobby Stanley is the 1972-73 President. Other officers are: Mrs. Joette Torrence, Vice-President; Mrs. Sheila Smith, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Faye Stratton, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Janet Noble, Treasurer. Committee Chairman are : Ways and Means - Mrs. Rufina George; Service - Mrs. Dot Wooten; Publicity - Mrs. Richard Bartelt. Social - Mrs. Elaine Stanley; Program - Mrs. Connie McDearmon.

Receive 4-H Alumni Awards

Campbell County was honored to have two citizens receive State 4-H Alumni awards during State 4-H Congress held on the Virginia Tech Campus recently. Presentations were made by Dr. W. R. Van Dresser, Associate Dean, Extension Division, V. P. I. and State University.

Mrs. J. F. MacKenzie of Route 3, Lynchburg and Archie F. Monroe of Route 2, Gladys, were two of the four persons honored at the Recognition Program.

The engraved copper plaques were presented to honor former 4-H members whose accomplishments, following 4-H memberships, exemplify effective community leadership, service to 4-H and success in their chosen careers.

Mrs. MacKenzie, the former Christine Garrette, has been an active volunteer 4-H leader for 22 years. As a leader she finds unique ways to work with youth to help them in their fourfold developemnt. Eight members of the Sherwill 4-H Club with whom she works have been awarded trips to the National 4-H Congress as state winners within the past five years.

A former teacher and school principal, Mrs. MacKenzie has served as a volunteer 4-H Leader in Appomattox County, City of Virginia Beach and Campbell County. Her husband James F. MacKenzie who preceived theCampbell County 4-H Alumni Award in 1971 accompanied her to Virginia Tech.

Archie F. Monroe, the other recipient from Campbell County, is assistant principal, Altavista Elemetary School. A former 4-H member in Campbell County, he has served as principal of Seneca Elementary School and has been active in community affairs such as T. B. Association and Cancer Fund drives; also serves as trustee of Hills Creek Baptist Church. Having a keen interest in youth Mr. Monroe takes advantage of opportunities that will encourage youth to prepare themselves for useful citizenship. Mrs. Monroe, also a 4-H leader, was present for the ceremonies honoring her husband.

Both Mrs. MacKenzie and Mr. Monroe are active in the Campbell County 4-H Leaders Association and 4-H International Committe. The latter committee recently conducted a successful campaign to provide funds to help sent Layton Evans of Campbell County to Venezuela as an International Foreign Youth Exchange Delegate.
